The Dealer is the American edition of the book CHERUB: Class A. It's not a con by the author or the UK publisher. Books are commonly given different titles by overseas publishers, but it's a bit of a pity that Amazon haven't flagged up the fact that this is an American edition. To avoid future confusion between editions, note that Robert is ...

Class A, published as The Dealer in the United States, and as The Mission for 5000 prints, is the second book in the Robert Muchamore's novel series CHERUB. It continues the story of teenager James Adams and his fellow CHERUB agents as they try to bring down a drug gang led by Keith Moore. The book was originally to be called Drugs, Cars and Guns, but this was changed so as to sound more appropriate for children. It received generally good reviews although not as many awards as its predecessor.

The Recruit graphic novel was produced by Robert's UK publisher and came out in 2012. It sold well and sequels were planned. Unfortunately the artist John Aggs was busy with other projects, so the sequel didn't happen. Casterman remained keen, and now created their own project to adapt Class A, with a new team of David Combet and Baptiste Payen.
