A diamond and my mother
Are two of the same
Diamonds all around her
Sparkle in her name.
For never has there been
A dark and starless night
For with the shining
Of my mother's eyes
From darkness comes light.
Dew on morning rose
Diamonds in the sky
Kind words when a new day starts
All these things I see in her
The diamond of my heart. Lauren O'Hara

The sun approaches, all the heavens lit
With torches of his couriers, all the sea
Laid with resplendent carpets for his feet!
And how the flaming arches blare and ring
With color salvos as my lord the sun
Steps from the invisible chariot of the night
And lifts his golden sceptre o'er the world!
Beholding, man becomes imperial,
